

Please Read This Important Information!

Notice and Consent to Electronic Transactions

Prior to initiating an electronic student loan transaction, you must read and indicate your acceptance of the following terms:

This consent is to indicate your willingness to electronically sign your Promissory Note (Note) or other document submitted in electronic form. Your consent covers only the transaction for which you are presently applying. The Note and any related disclosures, agreements or notices will be in electronic form. None of this information will be distributed in paper format unless you request a particular document by contacting us either in writing, by telephone or through e-mail.

You may contact our office at: Bank of North Dakota – Student Loan Services
PO Box 5509
Bismarck, ND 58506-5509
800.472.2166 ext. 328.5763
bndser@nd.gov

Borrower Consent and Agreement

Please indicate your consent to the above terms by selecting [I Agree]. By providing your consent, you also confirm that you are able to access all of the documents provided to you in electronic form. If you select [I Disagree], please print any form requiring your signature, sign and mail to Bank of North Dakota – Student Loan Services or contact our office as provided above.